ABOUT THE EVENT

The hot dog is a quintessential part of the All-American diet, celebrating its premier at the 1893 World's Fair. Now in its first year, the Weiner Fest has become one of the newest festivals in the world to honor the red hot.

We are expecting more than 30,000 people to attend this picnic in the park to relish the interesting twists and unique red-hot recipes from more than a dozen vendors. With more than 35,000 hot dogs, there's something on the menu for everyone.

While fans fill up on mouthwatering encased meats, cold beer and decadent desserts, a tasty lineup of local and touring bands will take the Main Stage to keep the party going as well as craft activities and games for the whole family. There will also be a Hot Dog Eating Contest and the first annual Bun Run.

Held just steps inside, and benefiting, the Exposition Park, it has all the ingredients of an exceptional summer event.
